Amazing Feats of Fundraising!

Circus In The Parks expands its fundraising tour for 2011

WHAT: Circus In The Parks, featuring Chicago's Midnight Circus, a high-flying assortment of acrobats, aerialists, clowns, contortionists and even a dog will tour six Chicago parks in September and October under a brand new purple and blue little big top. So intimate, there is no such thing as a bad seat. This year's tour is presented by Peoples Gas and the Chicago Park District and features a brand new show. To purchase tickets visit www.CircusInTheParks.org

WHY: All proceeds from Circus in the Parks will be split between all participating parks to fund their local parks improvements. Since 2007 over $160,000 has been raised with this one of a kind community building/fundraising event.
